

Transforming school communication and engagement

Empowering Schools to Connect, Engage, and Succeed

Presented by Jason Boursier, EdTech and Sales Extraordinaire

Overview

Encouraging school participation and positive engagement

Time management benefits for teachers and office staff

Impact on student outcomes: graduation
rates & success

Challenges in schools today

1

Fragmented communication channels
(emails, newsletters, outdated apps)

2

High administrative workload for teachers and office staff.

3

Declining student engagement impacting academic outcomes.

4

Communication is just not fun
to apply (feels like work)!

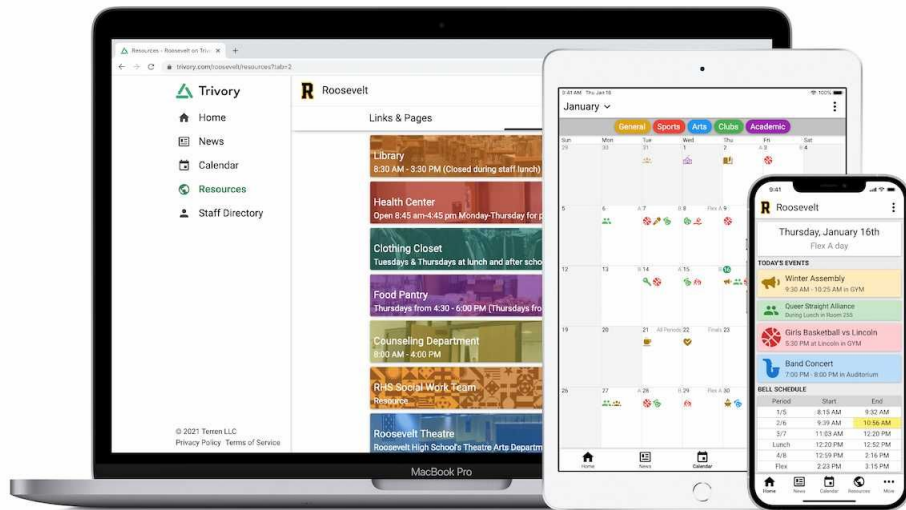

Trivory is a next-generation engagement platform designed to complement your existing systems

In 2022, there were 2.1 million status dropouts between the ages of 16 and 24 (NCES)

Schools need a solution that Unites Communication,
Improves Efficiency, and Drives
Student Success.

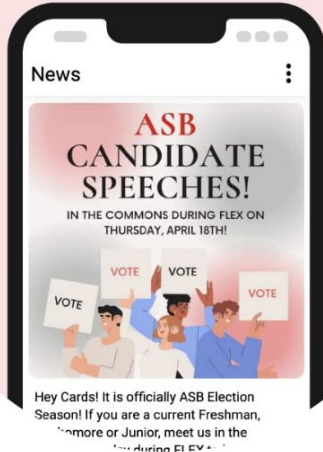

Our mission

Trivory was founded with one clear mission: to keep kids engaged and propel them toward success.

Born from firsthand experience and built by a student for students, our platform creates a vibrant, connected school community where every update, schedule, and announcement inspires learning and growth.

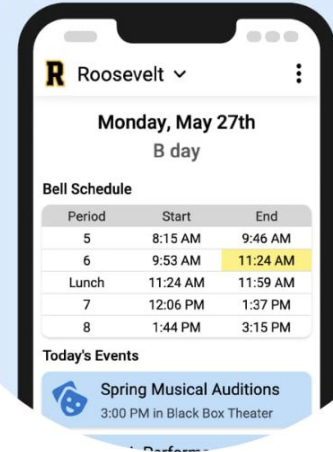

Focused on the features that matter

 News

 Calendar

 Schedules

Creating a connected & supportive school culture

Empowers student leaders and teachers to post announcements.

Provides a dynamic news feed that keeps everyone informed.

Fosters a sense of community: students, parents, and staff all feel involved.

Streamline communication and boost efficiency

Parent/Teacher Conferences

Join us at parent/teacher conferences on Wednesday, Jan 10, and Thursday, Jan 11, from 5:00 - 8:00pm.

Families will enter through the front doors, and conferences will be drop-in.

Quick and easy announcements:
post updates with minimal effort.

Simplifies event coordination:
central calendar reduces scheduling conflicts.

Maximizes staff efficiency: fewer calls, emails, and administrative tasks, letting your team focus on higher-value tasks.

What our schools are saying

"I see Trivory as an integral part of our open communication with students and families. Setting it up is easy, and the cost can't be beat!"

KD Parman

Principal, Roosevelt High School

"We've been using Trivory for a few years now and it's a game changer in regards to communication to our students and families for our school."

Curtis Wilson Jr.

Principal, Benson Polytechnic High School

"As a principal this tool was pivotal in our communication to families, students, staff, and partners. It's extremely user friendly and you can't beat the price."

Chris Frazier

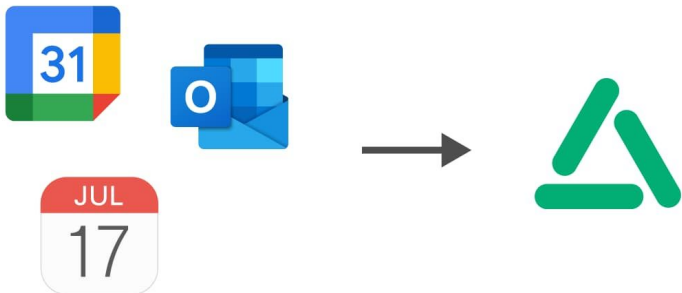

Senior Director of Schools, Portland Public Schools

"I absolutely praise Trivory every chance I get. It is such an amazing, useful tool for both our teachers and students. It absolutely is a resource that should be in every school."

Elizabeth Avila

Administrative Assistant to the Principal, Franklin HS
